“ My parents use to drop me off on Saturdays and so other days. I would run across highway 98 and spend the day with them. Mama Addie would treat me as one of her own. Feed me, pop me upside the head sometimes and run me out of the house along with the rest of the boys. I loved it. I'm not going to say this is going to be easy. Because it's not. I love you all and remember these words that helped me. GOD has added another flower to his heavenly garden.
