“ My name is Kendall Garrett. I am one of Grandpa Spurlock's grandsons. It's been over 3 years since his passing and I still don't know what his first name is. He was one of the most kindest and loving men I've ever known. It was never a moment with him that he didn't spoil me or was tired of me and wouldn't want to be around me. Around age 10 he was taken away from my grandma if I'm not mistaken to a mental home. I wasn't reunited with him until nearly 4 years after that situation. While riding my bike with my cousin through the projects in the 3rd ward, I noticed a tall, black man with the same gray hair surrounding a dark and shiny bald head like a bowl. I yelled out Grandpa Spurlock and he turned around and noticed it was his Yellow, his Wine-O that was calling out for him. I have never seen a bigger and electrifying smile come from that man in my life. I immediately jumped off my bike and ran to him the same way I did as a little kid. I hugged him as tight as I possibly could because it felt like a dream. We talked for a bit and while walking him to his door he let me know that he had to be somewhere and that he loved me and missed me so much and I reciprocated those same feelings on the verge of tears. That is the last time I ever saw him. I am turning 21 next month on the day. Even though I can't get the years back that I couldn't be with him I've never forgotten him. I love you and miss you forever Winehead.
