“Darlene and I went to middle and high school together. After graduating from Horace Mann in 1980, we kept in touch for many years. From Cincinnati to Mississippi. We often talked about her visiting me in Seattle or me coming. We even planned to meet up at our 30th class reunion, but we missed each other. She was truly a good friend. We talked about everything. She had a kind heart and a gentle spirit. Sadly, we lost touch and my heart is heavy because I discovered today that God called His angel home. Sleep well my friend. I send my condolences to the family.

Love you always,

Mary (Niecy) Hall

“ I lit a candle today in honor of my friend Ms Darlene Jacobs. Darlene and I attended middle school and high school together. We both graduated from Horace Mann high School class of 1980, and Gary Indiana. Darling was a very loving soul, she always had a beautiful smile on her face no matter what was going on. Darling was always kind and friendly to everyone she met. Darlene and I kept in touch after high school I knew she had moved to Cincinnati Ohio. I had moved to the state of Georgia. We were both just trying to find our way and unfortunately we lost touch with one another. I was going through some letters and cards and decided to try to locate Darlene Jacobs when I came across this post. I never knew Darlene had moved to Mississippi I stayed in Georgia for 27 years. Now I'm just finding out that a friend of mine's passed away 4 years ago. In closing, I would like to say, I was very honored to be a classmate and a friend to Darlene Jacobs. I hope she knew, how much she blessed my life. Rest in peace Darlene Jacobs.

“ I light a candle for someone who was an aunt to my sister's and I. Darlene was an aunt to myself and sisters. Before my sister was killed in 2011, she loved Darlene as an aunt. Darlene and my mom were best friends for over 20 years. For as long as I can remember they were close. From ushering at church to our KFC dinners after church in Sunday's. Telling my mom that her best friend was no longer here, broke my heart. They were so close an anytime you lose someone close to you, especially with not having the opportunity for a proper good bye. It's very crushing to say the least. We have memories an although shared no blood, we always felt as if we did. Darlene was every bit of a best friend an sister to my mom and for that I will always be thankful. I know growing thru my teen years I wasn't always easy to deal with. But she had a hand in molding me as well. From this time of mourning we also hold memories and although painful it's also joyous. Darlene is with the Lord. That's something to feel joyous about!

My sister Carrie just needed her Auntie and came for her. I smile knowing they are likely arguing and cracking jokes on each other. My final prayer is that family find peace an joy in her life as well. We in Cincinnati Ohio loved Darlene and just like you..will miss her tremendously!!!

Rest Up Auntie Darlene. Until we meet again...We Love You!!!
