“ I have great memories of the chicken dinners that were prepared at the church by my mom and grandma as I helped Bishop Luter clean the church. I also remember getting burned by boiling water and Bishop coming too the hospital praying while they worked on me. No amount of medication brought comfort only his voice calling on the Lord. Bishop was a teacher a friend a comfort and the father many of us didn't have. I thank God for the gift of him I know he is resting easy his soul was anchored in the Lord. My condolences too the family
