“ Melvin...my beloved brother-in-law will be missed deeply. As a little girl growing up, I have always loved, respected and enjoyed his company and fatherly compassion. As an adult now, I cherish the great memories of him and how use to included me with his family. He was kind, generously, and a loving father. I have not been unable to see him because of living in different cities, however, I was so glad and happy to see him last year in which he told me gave me a big huge. Melvin, thank you for being so kind, considerate, a great brother-in-law and a wonderful father.

*Love you much,

“ It may be hard to understand right now that someone you loved so much has left this place we call home. But he is now sitting in a heavenly home because his task down here is done. God has now decided to give him eternal rest. May the memories that were made together with him be a comfort for you.
