To the family and friends of Sis. Terry Thomas, I want to let you know that I am lifting you up in my prayers for the passing of your dear father, Mr. Philemon Moore, Sr. I know that the passing of our loved ones is the Will of God and yet, there is a human tie that has been broken, which bleeds the heart in agony and pain. I also realize that at this time, there are no words that can really help to ease the pain you bear. But know that you can find comfort and consolation in the words of Jesus, who said “Cast your burdens on Him for the earth hath no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal.” It is my prayer that God will give you the strength that you need to sustain you during this time of bereavement.

WHEREAS: I pray it will give the family consolation in knowing that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Therefore, I say to you, “Look to the hills from whence cometh your help, your help will come from the Lord.” However, we must accept the will of God. We realize that to continue down the pathway of life without our loved one at our side is not always easy. It probably seems as though the whole world has collapsed and the way that once looked bright and cheerful suddenly appears dark and gloomy; but just remember that the same Heavenly Father who sends His comforting love to each of us, will give you the strength you need to continue, secure in the knowledge that death is but the beginning of life. So, weep if you must because tears are nourishment to the soul but just know as the Word of God says, “Weeping may endure for a night but joy will come in the morning.

*Prayerfully submitted,
