“ There's so much I can say and many memories I have to cherish. It's hard to think about my uncle without thinking about racing. He was the first who introduced the love of a mustang to my brother. I saw so much of PaPa in him. My uncle believed in what he believed in. He always had his word of advice. He treated everyone the same. No one was spared from his special advices. My children and I shared and reminisced of our conversations with you. Some advices you gave to them, I heard them for the first time. You were real! We are truly going to miss you. RIP to Sandy Hook, OG!! High Five Tracy for me! Miss you both.
