“ We are so very sorry for your tremendous loss. Sam was always happy, and it was a joy talking & working with him here at Gipson Steel. He was always bragging on his family for whom he had so much love for. We will really miss him, but Heaven has gained a loving soul.

Sam and his crew have been working on our project in Baton Rouge for a few months. In that time, he was noted to be a highly skilled iron worker, a true professional, and a joy to work with. Our project team members are all deeply affected by his loss. Sam and the Magee family are in our thoughts and prayers.

Sam never knew a stranger. He was such a kind soul as a continued customer of ours he was always bragging on his children and grandbabies always so happy... He always told me I was his aunts twin we would laugh. Well Sam you have definitely earned your wings may you rest in the arms of Jesus. Prayers to the Magee Family you are in our thoughts and prayers.

Cecile Cissy Simoneaux

Your Airgas Family.
