The first Christmas after you lose someone is hard. You will feel like not celebrating, but you will go along with it for the kids, for the family. It will hurt. The presents not bought. The chair no sat in. The memories of past Christmases that threaten to suck the joy out of the whole day. But you will get through it. You may even raise a smile between the tears. If you can - thank God for the Christmases you had with them. Light a candle. Cry. Start a new tradition in their memory. Next year won't be as hard.
